

1st International Workshop and Summer School on Mobile Music Technology and Social Inclusion of Young Children

14-15 June 2011 University of Oulu, Finland

Keynote lecturers:

Professor Heli Ruokamo, Faculty of Education,
University of Lapland, Finland
Professor Graham Welch, Institute of Education,
University of London, UK

Workshop topics:

Child-centered Design, Selecting Music Technology for Children, JamMo – Music for Social Inclusion

Expected audience:

Secondary users, such as teachers from different school levels, parents, stakeholders in education, people working with migrant families

Summer School (PhD course 3.5 ECTS):

Post graduate students in music education technology, education technology, music education, early childhood education, special education, information technology etc.

Registration via UMSIC website www.umsic.org

Preliminary program

Tuesday 14 June 2011

9-10	Registration
10-12	Keynote lectures
12-13	Lunch
13-17	Workshop sessions

Wednesday 15 June 2011

8-9	Registration
9-11	Keynote lectures
11-13	Workshop sessions
13-14	Lunch
14-16	Workshop sessions
16-17	Closing Plenary Session

Usability of Music for the Social Inclusion of Children

UMSIC

Congress fee 125 eur includes meals coffee and materials (one-day fee 70 eur)

Participation is free of charge for students
(includes materials)
Please note that registration is mandatory!

Organizers: Project UMSIC (GA 224561) in collaboration with Oulu University Congress Office

